Forecast For East of England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Wednesday 09 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny and very warm by day with mild nights.

Today:
Any early mist patches will be short-lived leaving another fine, dry day, with prolonged warm sunshine through the morning. A little more cloud into the afternoon, but very warm again with light winds. Maximum temperature 26 deg C (79 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry and mild overnight, mostly cloudy with the best of any clear spells further east, perhaps allowing the odd mist or fog patch to form with light winds. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Thursday:
Perhaps a little more cloud about during the morning but it will be another fine and dry day with long periods of very warm afternoon sunshine. Maximum temperature 26 deg C (79 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Staying largely fine through this period, with plenty of sunshine, while temperatures may rise a little further. Light winds with afternoon sea breezes likely.
